Dear Mums and Dads,

This week the world mourns the loss of a charismatic person, Sir Captain Tom Moore, the Army veteran who won the nation's hearts and lifted our spirits during difficult times.

An inspiration to many, Captain Tom showed us we can all make a difference. Whether old or young, famous or modest, or just a humble person with a thankful heart, we can all make a difference. Captain Tom showed us you only need a single quality, you need to care!

As I heard the news of his death, I found myself in tears as if he were a close relative. And I can't help but feel that we need more people like him. Not great airs and graces and notes of self-importance, but people who can show us the way, little by little.

We have all been encouraged by him and today I'd like to celebrate his life and think about what an impact one person can make.

He aimed for £1000 ... how about £32,794,701 !!!!!

He stayed true to his beliefs – and he made the world a better place.

We are lucky to have, in our St Vincent's family, a fellow fundraiser, and a very successful one I may add.

Last weekend, Hassatou set herself the task of completing a 'bake-athon' for 10 hours. Hassatou wanted to raise money for charities supporting the NHS and homelessness. She began with the target of £500 which soon was 'smashed', ending with a whopping amount over £781. Well done Hassatou, a very worthy cause and a very yummy one indeed.
