Dear Parents and Carers,

At this point in the school year, schools always seem to take on a slightly different feel. The children are more confident, more independent and full of personality and it has been lovely to see that across the school in recent weeks.

One of the most rewarding aspects of this time of year is seeing just how much the children have developed not only academically, but personally too. Across the school, we are seeing pupils becoming more responsible, more thoughtful and increasingly independent in the way they approach their learning and relationships with others. Older children are taking on leadership responsibilities with maturity and kindness, while our younger pupils are settling into school life with increasing confidence and enthusiasm.

There is also a lovely atmosphere around the school at the moment. Classrooms are busy with purposeful learning, children are excited about upcoming events and opportunities, and there is a real sense of pride in all that has been achieved so far this year. It is always wonderful to see children beginning to recognise just how capable they are and approaching new experiences with confidence.

As always, we recognise that every child's journey is unique. Success and progress can look different for every child, and we remain committed to ensuring that all pupils feel valued, supported and encouraged to flourish both academically and personally. Schools are about far more than results alone; they are places where children learn how to build friendships, overcome challenges, show compassion and develop confidence in themselves and others.

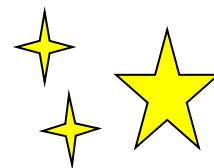

The final weeks of the school year are always incredibly special and busy. We have many exciting events, transition opportunities and celebrations still to come, and we are looking forward to making the most of every moment together as a school community.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. The strong partnership between home and school plays such an important role in helping our children thrive, and we are very grateful for it.

It continues to be a privilege to watch the children mature in confidence, kindness and character each day, and we look forward to sharing many more special moments together over the coming weeks.

Have a lovely half term.
